

	Key knowledge to be transferred to long term memory	You will remember...		Key knowledge to be transferred to long term memory	You will remember...
	Kirton is a village in Lincolnshire.	In Reception, you learnt that Kirton has a church.	Look Where I live: Knowledge and Skills		Maps can show us how to find our way around, so it is important that they are correct. They can show us places that are near and far.	In Reception, you used a map on the playground to find the animal signs
	Urban areas surround a city. They often have lots of buildings, roads and people.	In Reception, you learnt that London is a busy city with lots of vehicles and people.			Maps can be divided into a grid so that you can navigate into different areas more easily.	In Reception, you learnt that pirates use maps to find treasure. You made your own treasure map.
	Rural areas are in the countryside. They only have a few homes and buildings.	In Reception, you visited a farm in a rural area.			Open spaces are mostly green areas such as a park or community garden. Graves Park is an open space in Kirton.	In Reception, you visited Grimsthorpe Castle and learnt that it had a large green space.
	There are places that we visit often . For example, school, shops and the park. There are places that we visit rarely . For example, the beach, a hospital or a restaurant.	In Reception, you shared your experiences about places that you visit.			A landmark is an important feature that is easily recognisable in a place.	In Reception, you learnt that Big Ben, The London Eye and Houses of Parliament are landmarks of the city of London.
	There are places that are ' near ' and ' far ' from Kirton. For example, Boston is a local town that is near to Kirton. London is a city that is far from Kirton.	In Reception, you learnt that Africa is a hot country that is far away from our country.			A journey is the route you take to get from one place to another place.	In Reception, you made a journey from school to the church in Kirton.

Key Vocabulary
local	Belonging to the area that you live or the area that you are talking about.
symbol	A drawing or shape that can show where something is on a map.
travel	To move from one place to another.
navigate	To make or follow a travel plan.
compass	A tool to show which direction to travel.

